Neighbours and members of the Stanhope Township Voluntary Firefighters fought a blaze on the property of Tony Samarillo in Carnarvon on Thursday. The firefighters were able to prevent the fire from spreading through a renovated outbuilding but the attached garage was gutted and a recently restored Lincoln Continental was destroyed in the noon hour blaze.

Weather change favours dog derby

It has been a week of mixed emotions for Steve and Valerie Loughheed.

The organizers of the dog sled derby to be held January 12 and 13 in Minden have watched the weather conditions in the area anxiously. There was concern earlier in the month when little snow fell in the Highlands, but their wishes seemed to answered at Christmas when the area was blanketed with a good layer of snow.

Those high hopes evaporated later in the week, however as unseasonably mild temperatures and warm rain virtually washed away the covering.

New Year's Eve brought a new beginning, however, as once again the weather turned cold and snow started to fall.

As of Tuesday, the dog sled derby is still on, according to Steve and any final decision about changing the date will not be made until next week sometime.

In the meantime, the organizers report strong interest from those in the dog sled racing fraternity. Close to 20 entries have been received so far.

The races will begin on and finish on Minden's Main Street. The sleds will travel north on the Bobcaygeon Road, cutting across country behind Dr. Purc's office and following snowmobile trails behind the arena. The trail will bring the racers back into town on the same route, giving spectators an opportunity to see the exciting start and finish to the races.

There will be two classes, four dog and eight dog teams. The drivers race against the clock, leaving the starting gate at one minute intervals.

Included in the program is a mutt and kid race, which will cover the length of Main Street with children of the racing families and one dog competing in a sprint style race.

The races will begin at 12 noon on Saturday, and 1 p.m. on Sunday.

Drivers are reminded that the Main Street, from Vasey's corner to the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce will be closed to traffic on those days. An alternate route on Milne Street will be available.

A section along the eastern side of Bobcaygeon Road north of the bridge will be reserved for the dog teams. This area will be marked by a snow cone created by ploughs. Drivers are requested to stay clear of this lane. Traffic wardens will be on duty throughout the day to assist drivers.

For those interested in learning more about dog sled racing, and the events planned for the weekend, an informative program has been prepared by the race organizers. This program should be available soon, free of charge, at businesses throughout the area.

Allowance wages increased by Minden council

At a special meeting of Anson, Hindon and Minden Council held on Wednesday, December 19 councillors voted to increase their expense allowances by $350 per annum. Expense allowances for members of council were last raised in March 1981.

Councillors Gary Kenney, Pat Burk and Dave Stevens will be paid $3,200 and receive an expense allowance of $900. These figures do not include amounts paid to councillors to cover costs incurred while attending conferences and conventions. The members of council also have their OHIP coverage paid for by the municipality.

A second bylaw was passed at the meeting increasing the wages paid to municipal employees for 1985.

The wage increases to temporary and permanent employees varied, averaging approximately 5%.

Quiet week for local OPP

It was a quiet week for the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police. Other than a few motor vehicle accidents, the result of slippery roads, the holiday season proved to be a quiet one.

One serious injury accident occurred December 27 on Highway 648 in Harcourt. The mishap occurred near the intersection of Elephant Lake Road.

The accident occurred when a vehicle attempted to pull out onto the highway and was struck by an oncoming car. The driver of one of the cars, Carol Bradley, 44, of Harcourt, was injured in the mishap and was taken to Hospital in Haliburton. The second driver, 69 year old Isaac Whitefield of Wilberforce was not seriously injured.

The vehicles sustained a total of $3000 damage.

Bradley has been charged with failing to yield the right of way.

Constable Dave Rogers was the investigating officer.

Death

A 76 year old Lochlin man died suddenly December 30 after apparently choking on a piece of fruit he was eating.

Thomas Steele was rushed by ambulance to Haliburton Hospital, but was pronounced dead on arrival.

Dr. Harry Good was the Coroner. No inquest or post mortem was ordered.

Marjorie Coulter was the winner of the $250 grand prize in The Times Hometown Christmas contest. Her ticket was selected from all entries received by Wayne Henderson, owner of The Storeroom.

Minden, Nebraska, U.S.A.

by Hilde Lange

The residents of Minden, Nebraska are fortunate to have an excellent facility for senior citizens. Known as Bethany Home, it was established in 1920 by the pastor of the Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, Rev. Jensen.

The first Bethany Home was a twelve-room house purchased for $3,000.00 of borrowed money. The house was in need of extensive repairs and Rev. Jensen did most of the work himself. A Board of Directors was appointed to manage the affairs of the home but the superintendent was given the responsibility of handling the day by day operation of the institution.

Applications for admission to the Home came in rapidly and by 1921 it was necessary to erect a new bungalow type home with nine guest rooms and a spacious living room.

Through the years, many additions have been made to Bethany Home. The present director, Wes Anderson, said that in the beginning, the home was a simple, custodial place for widowers who needed a home, meals, and laundry. The comfort and welfare of the residents has been continually upgraded until now residents receive tasty meals, all according to nutritional and governmental standards; daily professional nursing care; mental stimulation with daily activities; and shelter that meets government regulations.

The spiritual needs of the residents have not been neglected. Every day begins with devotions. Area pastors pay regular calls, administer Communion, and take turns conducting Sunday morning services. But that one special place, called a chapel had been missing.

The room currently serving as the chapel is also the daytime activities room. State law says that Bethany Home must provide at least one structured group activity every day. Therefore, every day the room must be set up for an activity, and every day it must be cleared for another activity or for chapel services. Now Bethany Home residents, employees and the entire town can look forward to the dedication of a new chapel/multi-purpose room.

The multi-purpose side of the structure will serve as an overflow to the chapel. It will be used for family gatherings where the resident may prepare her own refreshments in the kitchenette, or a meal can be enjoyed by the visiting family without interfering with the schedule or facilities of the rest of the home. Weekday activities will probably also use this room, and programs brought into the home by community organizations will be enjoyed in greater comfort in this room.

Since 1970 Bethany Home Corporation has been comprised of all area churches and has the responsibility to help make the residents of the home feel secure in their whole being. There are currently 59 residents at Bethany Home; 35 of whom are 85 years and older; seventeen are 90 plus.

Currently in the United States there are 25 million people over the age of 65, with 5,000 joining the ranks daily. In this day of good and plentiful food, the practice of preventive medicine, medical care, and good welfare programs, people are living longer and healthier lives.

One very important aspect of the new chapel is that funerals or memorial services can now be held. Many elderly people enter the home with not much family close by, or they have outlived many of their friends. The residents of the home become family and friends and when a friend passes away, residents want the opportunity to have a memorial service in a worshipful setting.

The projected total cost was estimated at $170,000 early last spring and the building committee has altered that figure. Of that amount $39,000 has had to be borrowed but the entire amount is being raised strictly by donations.

Having observed some of the less than ideal conditions in some homes for the elderly in larger cities, a visit to Minden's Bethany Home is a refreshing experience.

Juveniles still win, even with only 9 players

One of the reasons for the strong showing of the Minden Juveniles this season is that the club has been able to ice as many as 18 players for their regular season games.

This was not the case this past Friday, however, when icy road conditions kept some of the players away from a six team Juvenile tournament held in Woodville.

Yet with a roster of only nine players, Minden won three games to capture the championship.

In the first game of the tournament against Oshawa, Minden fell behind by two goals then came roaring back scoring six unanswered goals in the second and third period to take the game 6-2.

Tim Wood was the top Minden scorer with a pair of goals.

Barry Boice and Bernie Upton scored a goal and two assists each. Scot Hamilton and Daryl Ward contributed a goal and an assist each. Assists also went to Boomer Stamp with a pair and Doug Schell and Gord Wood with singles.

Minden received only one minor penalty while Oshawa was handed five minors.

The second game against Manvers was a much more evenly matched contest with Minden winning 5-3.

Scot Hamilton led the way for Minden with a hat-trick and one assist. Boomer Stamp rounded out the scoring with a pair of goals. Assists went to Bernie Upton with three, Jeff Howe with a pair and a single to Barry Boice.

Going into the championship game against Beaverton, Minden was far enough ahead on points that the team could have lost the game by two goals and still have taken first place in the tournament, but instead Minden dominated the play and backed by a fine performance by goalie Kevin Smith. Minden shut out Beaverton 6-0.

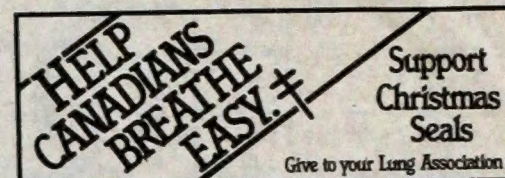

Barry Boice was the top gun for Minden, scoring two goals and adding an assist.

Jeff Howe scored a goal and assisted on two others. Bernie Upton scored once and assisted on one goal. Tim Wood and Boomer Stamp scored a goal apiece and Doug Schell contributed two assists.

On Saturday, January 5 Minden hosts a Juvenile Tournament at the Minden Arena.

Eight teams will be competing in the tourney which gets underway at 8 a.m. with a game between Minden and Fenelon Falls.

Fenelon Falls is the only team that has defeated the Minden Juveniles in league play this season, so the opening game should be an exciting match and could decide the eventual winner of the tournament.

Minden rider on pro snowmobile racing circuit

Snowmobile racer Steven Stewart of Minden will be flying new colours this season.

Stewart has joined forces with a number of local sponsors to form the Prentice-Berry Race Team.

Stewart will be competing in at least six professional Sno-Cross races this winter in Ontario and Quebec and, when time allows, will be entering half-mile oval track races.

Stewart has been racing for four seasons on the Pro Sno-Cross circuit driving in both snowmobile and ATC races. He placed first in both classes at the sanctioned races held in Minden in January 1984 and also took second place overall in the Highland Cup series this past summer.

Stewart will be driving a 1985, 465 cc liquid cooled Ski-Doo in the 56 horsepower class. The first race of the season was scheduled for December 30 in Ottawa but was cancelled due to the lack of snow.

Barring another thaw the Prentice-Berry Race Team will be competing in Owen Sound on Saturday and Sunday, January 5 and 6. The team will also be entering the Sno-Cross competition held in Minden on January 26 and the World Series in Owen Sound at the end of February.

Stewart's experience, consistency and aggressive driving style should make the newly formed racing team a force to be reckoned with on the professional circuit.

Third year for centre funding

The Haliburton Highlands Hospitality Training Centre has received funding for an additional year of operation. The centre received word last month that a federal grant of $173,000 had been approved to allow it to operate for another year.

This will be the centre's third year in operation.

The training centre provides intensive courses in skills required in the hospitality industry. Students are trained in bartending, housekeeping, food service and preparation.

The next class at the centre begins in mid February with a maximum of 14 students being accepted. Deadline for applications is February 4.

W.I. Christmas meeting

The Minden Women's Institute had their Christmas Party at the United Church Hall on the afternoon of December 19. Mrs. L. Cox, the president, opened the meeting with a verse, "It is nearly Christmas".

After the regular programme, the Roll Call had eighteen members answer with a Christmas Verse or good wishes and two guests were made welcome.

Mrs. W. Moore gave her report of 12 cards sent since the November meeting. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given.

It was decided that this day's collection for the card fund be made up to $25 for Minden Christmas baskets and pennies for friendship were also collected. Some members put money in the birthday box. Mrs. L. Cox then read an item, "The True Meaning of Christmas."

After the adjournment, all enjoyed the singing of favourite carols with Mrs.

D. Cox at the piano. Then we had grand snacks and a cup of tea, buffet style, served by the committee. Jean Lacey and Jeanne Sears gave out gifts from the exchange table and also Secret Pals gifts. As they were leaving, several joined in singing, "We Wish You A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

The next meeting will be held January 16, 1985 at the Library Cultural Centre at 2 p.m. with all ladies welcome. Jeanne Sears, P.R.O.

A right to know

A recent article in Toronto's Globe and Mail noted that in general, municipal politicians are reluctant to endorse proposed provincial legislation setting standards for access for the public to the workings of municipalities. The article pointed out several examples of how municipal councils attempt to hold their proceedings in secret or to hide controversial items from the public.

One such tactic is to call a meeting outside the regular schedule without informing the public it is being held. The result of such action is a secret meeting at which public business is being discussed and decisions made.

On the whole the municipal councils covered by this newspaper have been open and fair in their dealings with the public. (Although there are times when controversial decision passes too smoothly and with little debate, indicating the matter has been hashed out earlier in another forum.)

It was somewhat ironic that shortly before the article appeared in the Globe, the Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal council met in an unscheduled session December 19. It is also interesting to note what was on the agenda of the more than two hour meeting. Included in the topics was a bylaw covering employee remuneration and a second bylaw increasing council member's expense allowances.

We do not, at this time, question the need for increased spending in these areas, indeed they could probably be easily justified. However the public was denied access to the debate these items generated at what was ostensibly a secret meeting. (In fairness, it should be noted that a copy of the minutes of the meeting was sent by mail to this newspaper. However, while the minutes provide a barebones summary of what was resolved, they do not provide the details on which to assess the performance of the elected representatives.)

The fact that the councillors discussed and voted on a resolution affecting their own remuneration at the unscheduled meeting makes the action even more onerous.

We hope the council will show greater respect in the new year for the public's right to know what decisions they are making and why.

Criminal Code changes

- by Bill Scott, M.P. -

The coming of the New Year can be likened to a new start. For our new government, it will be our first full year, as the manager of the affairs of Canada.

One of the pieces of legislation that we wish to pass early in the New Year is the Criminal Law Reform Bill. The Bill contains a number of long-awaited amendments to the Criminal Code. If accepted by Parliament, the Bill would:

- Impose stiffer penalties for impaired driving including new offences and new provisions for mandatory blood testing where a driver suspected of being impaired cannot provide a breath sample.

- Abolish the controversial writ of assistance, which permits certain RCMP officers enforcing drug laws to search premises without first obtaining a search warrant.

- Establish a system of "telephonic" warrants by which police officers could, in special and well defined circumstances, obtain search warrants by telephone or other telecommunications means, under the strict control of the court.

- Improve certain court procedures to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the justice system. For example an amendment is proposed to allow judges, prosecutors and lawyers to meet before a trial begins to sort out procedural difficulties and also to dispose of matters that must be considered in the absence of the jury.

- Other proposed amendments will enhance the protection of individual rights. For example, if information seized from the possession of a lawyer for evidence in a trial is alleged to contain confidences between a citizen and the lawyer, the information will be sealed and then examined only by a judge of a superior court. If the judge decides that such confidences are contained in the information, the documents involved would be returned in sealed packets. To protect the reputations of innocent people, the media would not be able to publish the identity of a person whose premises have been searched by the police unless charges have been laid, or unless that person consents to publication. The public would continue to have access to information filed by the police with the court in obtaining a search warrant.

- Provide for the establishment by the provinces of fine-option programs whereby an offender financially unable to pay a fine imposed under federal statute would be able to pay his or her debt by performing a community service.

- Provide penalties to deal with certain types of emerging crime such as tampering with computers and computer data banks,

Federation of Ontario Naturalists

Over the next four months, Ontario will quietly be invaded. Legions of hushed behemoths are already silently winging south, gliding eerily over the landscape by dusk and dawn, bent upon staking out new territory.

But it's a harmless - indeed, a beneficial - invasion. And it can provide captivating viewing to anyone living or travelling in agricultural countryside.

Snowy owls, awesome and unmistakable, are huge birds of prey. Creamy white and lightly spotted or barred with brown, they attain wingspans approaching 1 1/2 m (5 ft.) and often stand 45 cm. (1 1/2 ft.) tall. Equipped with a muscle-bound stout body form, large intelligent-looking yellow eyes, and strong talons and beak, 'snowies' are superbly adapted to hunting rodents.

Their acute hearing, rendered through feather-hidden ears, puts sophisticated acoustic equipment to shame. At the tiniest of rustling or squeaks, the turret-like head rotates to position, and the owl's equally-fantastic vision comes into play. Specially structured to "collect" light during dawn and dusk, their vision is many times more acute than our own. They can readily see a mouse moving through the grass at great distances.

Spending most of the year on the arctic tundra, 'snowies' hatch 5 to 7 chicks amid a simple, moss-lined depression in the ground. Feeding voraciously on lemmings, these chicks grow quickly and are on their own long before freeze up.

The wild fluctuations in arctic lemming populations - they build up to huge numbers every 3 to 5 years, then suddenly die off - has profound implications for the owls. During the lean years, there is a great shortage of food, and many owls are forced south, to obtain sufficient food.

Setting up shop in frozen fields, they perch regularly upon favourite posts, poles, trees and even buildings. Unlike most owls, they are active by day, scanning fields for the large numbers of mice and meadow voles which they consume.

Sadly, these owls are often shot by "potshots" and by misguided souls who regard predators as "evil". In reality, these raptors are highly beneficial in controlling rodent numbers, as well as fascinating in their own right. They do not prey upon livestock, and well deserve their legal protection. Ontario's Game and Fish Act makes it an offence to destroy or capture these birds, and provide stiff penalties for violators.

If you're fortunate enough to see these birds, take the time to have a close and thoughtful look.

The year in review

It is always interesting and informative to look back over the year's events. With the perspective of hindsight, some events, which at the time appeared to carry great significance, have since diminished in importance. Others, which were passed over lightly, now command more attention. We hope you enjoy this spotlight on the year 1984 in Haliburton County.

January

Among other things, 1984 marked the 125th anniversary of the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden. While few special celebrations were planned to mark the occasion, groups which held annual events were asked to incorporate the heritage theme into their programs, thereby paying tribute to the municipality and the province's bicentennial celebrations.

January dawned with a shock when Minden village residents learned that sewer rates would be increasing up to 100%. The increase, approved by the council in the final days of 1983, reflected a boost in service charges by the Ministry of Environment.

In Kinmount, dog owner Roland Hamilton mounted a campaign to change the provision which allows Conservation Officers to shoot dogs which are found to be harassing deer. His own pet was shot.

Early January saw the loss of a Minden landmark as the former Welch building was dismantled.

Dysart council got a look at a $7.5 million plan to create a time sharing resort on Head Lake.

At county council, the roads committee bowed to pressure and agreed to re-examine its proposals for the Ingoldsby bridge. The committee had suggested only minor repairs, but other members of council felt the single lane structure deserved better treatment.

The Minden Winter Carnival proved once again to be a popular attraction. Rhonda Wilson was crowned the senior queen of the snofest, while Canadian champion Tracy Wainman dazzled the crowd with her skating and Cynthia Kereluk, Miss Canada, added a special touch to the festivities.

Steve Stewart showed his championship abilities on ATCs, taking the Sno-Cross held at the Minden arena.

February

A suggestion that Minden incorporate a deer park and other attractions into the area adjacent to the library and arena received encouragement.

Control of the hospitals in Minden and Haliburton passed from the Red Cross to St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough. The change followed several years of negotiations and study.

Sportsmen, concerned citizens and Ministry of Natural Resources personnel worked hard to bring food to the area's deer herd as deep snows made conditions difficult for the animals. Their efforts paid off as the October deer hunt was one of the best in many years.

Rotary clubs in Minden and Haliburton raised funds for the Easter Seal Society through the Snowarama for Timmy. The Haliburton effort netted $11,843 while the Minden club raised $14,111.

KinArk, formerly known as Browndale, announced they would be phasing out most of their group homes in the county.

Wayne Cox was re-elected president of the Minden Agricultural Society, sponsors of the Haliburton County Fair. It was his third term as president.

The Haliburton Huskies Junior C team ended the season in third place and were eliminated in the first round of the play-offs. Later in the year attempts to organize the team for another season would fail and the Huskies would fold.

Randy Warburton was elected president of the Haliburton County Farmer's Association.

Communities throughout the county started to take an interest in the Neighbourhood Watch program which encourages citizens to keep a watchful eye on their neighbour's property.

Restraint, provincial style, was being felt in most municipalities as they discovered Ontario would be providing less for road subsidies in 1984.

Flames destroyed the home of Jim and Jennie Butler on Highway 121, south of Minden. The date was February 20.

Large crowds were on hand for the Haliburton Winter Carnival which went ahead despite mild weather. Chantale LaRue was crowned queen of the event.

John McAdam with his dog Spook, saved the life of Bill McKay who had fallen through the ice.

March

Quick action by John McAdam of Stanhope Township saved the life of Bill McKay who had fallen through the ice on Big Hawk Lake March 1.

The Haliburton Highlands Hospitality Training Centre moved to its new quarters in Haliburton Village.

The Anson, Hindon and Minden council wrestled with the proposal to purchase a new backhoe for the municipality. Those in favour of the purchase eventually prevailed with $48,900 being approved for the deal.

Plans were announced for the construction of a 22 unit senior citizens' apartment complex near the Minden arena. Known as Staunworth Court, the complex would serve seniors in Anson, Hindon and Minden, Lutterworth and Stanhope townships. The price ... $695,000, provided by the provincial and federal governments.

Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey described a Toronto Star article as being "riddled with inaccuracies". The article portrayed the municipality's welfare system as being like a "slave camp".

Bud and Paula Kirchner, organic farmers near West Guilford, won top prize for their dairy herd in a district competition. Later in the year they would receive Canada-wide honours as well.

The county budget was approved. It was up $108,000 to a total expenditure of $1,143,240.

County Council agreed to spend up to $300,000 in a major facelift and repair of the Ingoldsby bridge.

The Minden Women's Institute helped mark the municipality's anniversary by attending their March meeting in costumes dating from the 1800s.

April

The Haliburton County Board of Education announced that its budget would increase by 4.3% in 1984. Total expenditure was $7,925,000.

The Minden Red Cross was told that new challenges await its efforts in the community, now that St. Joseph's Hospital has taken over the management of the hospital. Ed Buchan, Ontario Red Cross president delivered the keynote address at the group's annual meeting.

Four more townships agreed to take part in the tree cutting by-law which protects the clear cutting of valuable hardwood trees. Those adding their names to the provisions included Anson, Hindon and Minden, Stanhope, Monmouth and Bicroft.

Cross country skiers got a boost, as a favourable response was received from the province for the development of a linked trail system in the county. Later in the year, that favourable response would take the form of a $150,000 grant.

Dressed in period costumes, residents of the area helped mark the 125th anniversary by attending a Heritage Ball at the Minden arena.

A county historical society was formed to assist in the protection, development and appreciation of the area's historical heritage. High on the group's list was the Kanawa Canoe Museum. Frank Wallace was named the group's chairman.

April 30 high winds lash Haliburton County causing extensive power outages and blocking roads with downed trees.

May

Stuart Baker is chosen by the Haliburton County Board of Education as the new director of education. He replaces Doug Hodgson who retired after a lifetime of service in the education field. In honour of the retiring director, the senior elementary school in Haliburton is renamed, the J. Douglas Hodgson Elementary School.

The grade eight band at Archie Stouffer Elementary School placed first in the North Hastings Music Festival in Bancroft.

After an extensive debate, county council agrees on a split vote, to reduce the number of members. Cardiff, Snowdon and Monmouth townships will lose the representation of their deputy reeves.

Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal council agrees to pay members of its Planning Advisory Committee a $25 honourarium for each monthly day meeting.

Six area residents spend a cool night in the bush after two motorcycles break down in Anson Township. A police search the next day, with the aid of a helicopter, locates the missing individuals as they made their way out of the bush.

Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal budget jumps 4.4% with a total expenditure of $1,452,000.

After reviewing a number of presentations, the Haliburton County Historical Society says it favours the Glebe Park location in Haliburton Village as a new site for the Kanawa International Canoe Museum. The society will present its recommendation to the museum's board of directors.

June

140 residents and visitors take part in a 25 mile walk for wells. The money raised will be used to assist in the drilling of wells in India.

June 12, fire destroyed the Stouffer Mill in Stanhope Township. Owner, Elgin Stouffer says he has no plans to rebuild.

Stanhope municipal budget increases 5.5%.

To help celebrate the municipality's birthday, members of the Anson, Hindon and Minden municipal council, and staff members attend the regular day meeting in costumes of the 1800s. A special provision enacted earlier in the year, provides for a fine for those who do not meet the dress code provisions.

Lutterworth Township budget is announced with a 3.9% increase. Total spending will be $1,025,183.

July

Canada Day is marked in Minden with the launching of 3000 helium filled balloons. Many carried the names of area youngsters.

Construction of a cottage on a Soyers Lake lot angers adjacent property owner. He claims the property is not zoned correctly and urges council to issue a stop work order.

The Minden County Town Museum is officially opened with Reeve and Warden Lyle McKnight cutting the ribbon July 1.

A snapping turtle, lurking in Gull River, attacks the mother of 13 ducklings. Families along the river take in the orphans while Dr. P. J. Bennett attends to the injured mother.

The Ontario Municipal Board puts its stamp of approval on the Lutterworth Township zoning bylaw. The bylaw has been delayed for a number of years over procedural matters and the designation of flood prone areas in the municipality.

A beaver dam near Highway 121 south of Minden gives way and washes out a stretch of the roadway.

A Highland Grove group home resident is charged with murder following the death of another resident of the home.

Don't forget the dog sled races to take place in Minden on January 12 & 13.

Dog sled racing is becoming an increasingly popular sport. More dog teams are showing up at competitive races and consequently more spectators are being drawn to the sport. Haliburton County offers the perfect setting for this kind of activity in that it has plenty of trail possibilities running through miles and miles of rural area.

Geographically, Haliburton is centrally located, within reasonable driving distance for dog drivers and spectators from Southern Ontario, Central Ontario, Northern Ontario, the Ottawa Valley and the northern States. Winter conditions are often far superior in Haliburton in terms of a good snow base than most of these other areas due to earlier cold snaps and heavier snow falls.

Hosting a dog sled race offers an opportunity to draw tourists up to the area in the winter, which is generally a slow time as far as the industry is concerned. Even more inviting is the aspect of offering a spectator activity that bespeaks the vision of "Call of the Wild" ... dog sled racing sparks elements of nature that no other sport can. This kind of promotion is perfectly suited to that which Haliburton is known and loved for ... rugged and natural beauty at its best.

"These reforms illustrate my firm commitment to ensure that the Criminal Code adequately responds to the needs of contemporary society", said Mr. Crosbie. "I am particularly determined to meet the strong public demand for stiffer penalties against impaired driving. Changing the law is a first and necessary step in a larger program to reduce impaired driving. This legal regime of stiffer penalties is a strong signal to Canadian drivers that the federal government is serious about reducing alcohol-related traffic accidents."

I wish you and your family a very happy and healthy 1985.

WANT TO APPEAL YOUR ASSESSMENT?

You still have time to appeal your 1984 assessment if you feel your home or business property has been improperly assessed.

Your assessment is important because the amount of property tax you pay depends on it, in that the assessed value of your property is multiplied by your municipal and school mill rate to determine your 1985 property taxes.

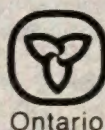

Notices of Assessment have been mailed to property owners and tenants whose assessments have changed since last year. Open houses have been held in your area to answer questions and amend assessment information if necessary. Open house dates and locations were announced in a previous advertisement.

The Assessment Roll has now been delivered to your municipality for the purposes of calculating the amount of taxes you must pay on your property in 1985. For information on your assessment, the Assessment Roll is now available for review at your Municipal Office during regular business hours. If you feel your property has been improperly assessed, and you have not yet made your appeal known, you still have until January 8, 1985 to deliver or mail an appeal to the Assessment Review Board. And remember, even if you did not receive a Notice of Assessment, you still have the right to appeal.

Appeal deadline—January 8, 1985

The Assessment Review Board is an impartial body reporting to the Attorney General of Ontario, which provides you with an additional opportunity to have your assessment reviewed if, in your opinion, it is not fair and equitable with similar properties in your area. The Review Board is more informal and relaxed than a regular court of law. You may present your own case, retain a lawyer or ask a relative or friend to speak as your agent.

To help you in filing your appeal, Notice of Appeal forms are available from the Assessment Review Board, your Regional Assessment Office or your Municipal Office. As well, you can use the reverse side of a Notice of Assessment or write a letter stating the property address and roll number, together with your reasons for appealing. Appeals should be forwarded to the Regional Registrar of the Assessment Review Board listed below.

Benefits increase in 1985

Effective January 1, 1985, Family Allowance, Canada Pension Plan, Old Age Security (OAS) and Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) benefits will be increased.

The normal indexing formula, which provides for a full cost-of-living increase, is being applied to Old Age Security cheques for January, February and March. This will mean an increase to $273.80 monthly. The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement for an individual or a married person whose spouse is receiving neither a pension nor a Spouse's Allowance, will be increased to $325.41. This will give a person receiving both the OAS and the maximum GIS a monthly total of $599.21. The maximum GIS for a married couple, who are both pensioners, will increase to $211.93 each. A married pensioner receiving the maximum GIS will get $485.73 or $971.46 for the couple.

The maximum Spouse's Allowance will increase to $485.73. It is paid to persons between 60 and 65 years of age who are married to Old Age Security pensioners and meet the residence requirements. Entitlement and the amount paid is based on yearly income. If the pensioner's spouse has died, the surviving spouse may be eligible for extended Spouse's Allowance to age 65 or until remarriage, if that person has a limited income. The new maximum amount payable will be $536.26.

Canada Pension Plan (CPP) recipients will have their benefits increased by 4.4%. As well, those who become eligible for benefits in 1985, the maximum monthly retirement pension will be $435.42. The 1985 maximum disability pension will be $414.13 per month and benefits for disabled contributors' children and orphans of deceased contributors will be $87.56 per month, per child. Surviving spouses under 65 will receive a maximum of $250.84 per month and those 65 or older will have maximum monthly benefits of $261.25.

The new ceiling for combined benefits is $435.42 per month. The maximum lump sum death benefit payable in respect of CPP contributors who die in 1985 will be $2,340. The 1985 minimum and maximum earning levels between which persons contribute are $2,300 and $23,400. A person who contributed at less than the maximum level, $379.80 for employees in 1985, will get monthly benefits at lower than the maximum allowable rate.

The Child Tax Credit for the 1984 Taxation year will be $367 per child based on family income. The Family Allowance benefits paid for children under 18 will rise to $31.27.

As Doug Schell moves in across the blue line, Jason Stamp slips a pass around a Millbrook defenseman in a game played in Minden on Sunday, December 23. The Minden Juveniles broke the game open in the third period to clinch a 6 - 2 victory.

Juveniles close '84 with 2 wins

The Minden Juveniles continued their winning streak capping off 1984 with a pair of wins against Millbrook.

On Sunday, December 23 the two teams faced off at the Minden arena and after two close checking periods of hockey, Minden broke loose scoring four goals to win the game 6 - 2.

Barry Boice opened the scoring on an unassisted goal early in the first period.

After Millbrook tied the score Scot Hamilton made it 2 - 1 on an assist from Bernie Upton.

Bernie added his own goal in the opening minutes of the third period on an assist from Barry Boice.

Lennie Johnston increased the lead taking a pass from Boomer Stamp, then Barry Boice popped in his second goal of the game assisted by Scot Hamilton and Bernie Upton.

After Millbrook added their second goal, Boomer Stamp rounded out the score on a pass from Jason Stamp and Doug Schell.

Referee Claud Parish handed out five minor penalties to Minden and nine minor and one major penalty to Millbrook.

On Sunday, December 30 the two teams met again in Millbrook and although the final score was closer, Minden outpointed their hosts.

Scot Hamilton was the lone goal scorer in the first period putting Minden ahead 1 - 0 on an assist from Barry Boice and Bernie Upton.

Daryl Ward put Minden up by two in the second period with assists from Dennis McKee and Doug Schell.

A minute later Bernie Upton added another goal assisted by Barry Boice and Boomer Stamp.

Boomer then added a goal of his own on an assist from Scot Hamilton. Lennie Johnston made it 5 - 0 for Minden in the third period assisted by Captain Jeff Howe before Millbrook bounced back and knocked in three goals in a row to spoil goalie Kevin Smith's shutout.

Bernie Upton added another goal assisted by Barry Boice and Boomer Stamp.

With only 26 second left on the clock, Millbrook fired in a goal but it was too little, too late, and Minden had a 6 - 4 victory to keep their winning streak alive.

A large crowd filled the recreation hall for Rotary Turkey Bingo on Tuesday, December 18. Those in charge were ready to give out their games and winning prizes, some money, others turkeys or Christmas baskets. If there were double winners money was divided but on turkeys, numbers were drawn and non-winners received consolation gifts. Just before the last game, Garth Gammon thanked all the members who helped with bingo nights and especially for the winter games. He also announced the New Year's Eve party. The last game was for a giant turkey and had a single winner. It was a fun night for those who came out. Next Rotary bingo night is January 29.

Former Minden resident Kai Phan, his sister Than and friends May and Quin visited friends in Minden over the holiday season.

Another Christmas visitor was Bradley Robinson of Toronto who visited his parents Florence and Phil Robinson.

Laura and Mike Bird from Toronto also visited with the Bill Birds over the holiday.

Sincere sympathy to the families of Madeleine Trepanier, Ethel Leigh and Leona McIntosh who passed away recently.

We were delighted to receive a card with a note from Danielle Belanger who was one of the last group of Katimavik participants who are now in Nova Scotia. She tells us her English has improved (as evidenced by her writing) and she still thinks of Minden as a happy place. Thank you Danielle, we miss you too.

A very Happy New Year to all our readers. Lang may your lum reek!

A Toast for the New Year

This is a magic time
You can feel it in the air,
You can see it in the snowflakes
That glisten on the children's hair.
And hear it in the merry chimes
That peal across the field
Now lying in slumber
But sensing its wonder
Stirring in spring's rebirth.
Laughter filling our ears
The happy sounds of girls and boys
As they gambol in the snow
And play with new toys
Full of joys
Of Christmas
Yes it is a magic time
For children at their play.
God grant that the joy
For all of us
Its magic will forever stay.
And that the New Year with its promise
That peace will come for all nations
If we follow where it beckons
For all men -
If we follow the Magi - and its glowing presence from afar.
So lift the Wassail cup
And toast its ruddy cheer
Warming all our hearts
With the coming of the New Year.
Happy, Happy New Year to you all.

Dear readers - as I've had to have my letter in by Friday noon, we will try to tell you what happened since we try to keep it in time.

Thursday afternoon the members of the auxiliary of Hyland Crst did come. Brought and served a delicious lunch to almost everyone. Toos Reid and Rose Barry also came to call, played and sang Christmas carols which were enjoyed by all. So we would just like to say, "Thank you all for coming this December day."

We have a new resident, Evelyn Robinson who is fitting in just great. Played bingo Thursday night and won EIGHT! The bingo callers were Brian Hamilton and Warren Payne. Thank you for coming and please come back again.

Linda showed us a video tape, to watch it we were glad, very interesting but ended fairly sad.

Our deepest sympathy we send out today to the family and relatives of Ethel Leigh who suddenly passed away.

Our entertainers came Friday afternoon, no matter what the weather let's have a social time together. Then Rev and Mrs. Wicks and members of his congregation came to us Friday night. Rev. Wicks showed us impressive pictures on the screen of a nativity scene along with ancient prophets and Queens. Bob MacBrien led us in Christmas carols in between Ray and Chris Johnson sang two numbers for us, the children did too. Real interesting all the way through. We would like to say thank you for coming to us this December day.

We have Heather Bowron home from the Friendship ministry for a three week holiday which is just fine. Heather is a lovely girl and better looking all the time.

In the chapel service Sunday night we had no one the music to play, we had a nice service anyway. Rev. Burgess spoke on the miracle of Jesus' birth and hoped some day we would have peace on earth.

On Monday Rev. George Elliott of Minden Anglican church came to us today with members of St. Paul's choir. Melissa Stephens the music to play. Rev. Elliott conducted a very impressive Christmas Communion service. We would like to say God Bless You for coming to us this day.

Well readers, Christmas day is here and a lovely sight. The green trees are loaded with snow so white. Santa came along with his darling elf. Brought us children lots of toys, we behaved ourselves. Then our Christmas dinner here at Hyland Crest. Our head cook Mark Schell and his go all out to give us their best. We are so thankful for this lovely home, we always have lots to eat and a comfortable place to stay. It makes us think of those poor ones that go hungry every day.

Congratulations to Lily Hogg who had a birthday December 24. The count is 89, now she is with her family at Christmas time. Edna Cowen is spending Christmas with her family too. All around here about, some coming in others going out.

I would like at this time to thank all who sent me flowers, Christmas cards, fruit, lots of good things to eat. We want to thank you all, and also the ones who came on me to call.

Ada Lewis, spent Christmas with Norma Barron, stayed a day or two. A real Christmas spirit and a nice thing to do.

Thursday afternoon the tea party was served by the kitchen staff of Hyland Crest. We would like you to know that the food they serve is always the very best.

We had a birthday party for the ones who had birthdays in December. With a tasty birthday cake and the members of the Ingoldsby United Church donating the ice cream. A real social time together, it all seemed like a dream.

Well readers, have you made any New Year's resolutions. I did, you bet. That is to kiss the ladies every chance I get.

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Some have hidden words or sayings, some do not. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off in the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun.

Q: What's the difference between a well-dressed man and a tired dog?

Surrounded by Humphrey players a Minden Pee Wee forward moves in on the opposition goal during third period action on Sunday. Minden held off a third penalty rally by Humphrey to win the game 5 - 4.

Pee Wees edge Humphrey 5 - 4

The Minden Pee Wees played host to the Humphrey Pee Wees on Sunday, December 23 and came up with a close 5 - 4 win.

Captain Kent Taylor led the way for Minden, scoring three goals and assisting on one other.

Minden built up a three goal lead in the first period on a pair of goals by Kent Taylor and a single marker by Rob Ackerblade.

Assists went to Darren Sawyer, Jaime Dollo, and Randy Bull.

After Humphrey scored early in the second period Randy Bull increased Minden's lead to three goals scoring on an assist from Kent Taylor. Half way through the third period Kent Taylor completed his hat trick with an assist from goalie Aaron Hie.

With only five minutes left in the period, Humphrey suddenly came alive firing in three goals but they were unable to catch up and Minden took the game 5 - 4.

The Minden Pee Wees begin the New year with a tournament in Bobcaygeon on January 5.

The following weekend Minden will be hosting the annual two day Pee Wee tournament beginning on Saturday, January 12.

Goals help handicapped

Minor Hockey players in Minden and Haliburton are among 480,000 from across Canada participating in the Ford Three Star Challenge to raise funds for the Canadian Paraplegic Association and the Bob Rumball Centre for the Deaf.

Players are being asked to collect pledges based on the number of goals their team scores during the first three league games in 1985. Half the pledges collected will stay with the player's team for team projects and the other half will be shared equally by the Canadian Paraplegic Association and the Bob Rumball Centre for the Deaf to assist persons with spinal cord injuries and hearing disabilities.

This is the largest fund raising project ever attempted by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

Of the many Canadian Minor Hockey teams that will be participating in the fund raising drive, fifteen teams will win a weekend with the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The teams that score the most goals in the three league games, collect the most pledges or who are selected in a draw will travel to Toronto in March.

The players and two coaches from each team will attend a hockey clinic presented by professional hockey players, skate on Maple Leaf Gardens ice, watch the Maple Leafs and the New York Islanders practice, visit the Hockey Hall of Fame, attend the Leafs-Islanders game on Saturday, March 2, then have breakfast with the Maple Leafs on Sunday morning.

The program is funded entirely by the Ford Motor Company.

Teams will be able to collect pledges up until January 19, 1985.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Jack MacGregor who passed away January 3, 1984.

To Dad:
Although you are gone,
I will never forget,
The things you showed me,
In order to grow.

You never failed to do your best,
And I was always proud to say
That you were my Dad,
The memories we've shared
I'll always have.

Sadly missed and remembered forever,

Terry, Karen, Rick, Cheryl,
Kathy, Heather and grand-children.

In memory of Jack MacGregor who passed away January 3, 1984.

To Jack:
It's nice to remember our very first kiss
Although years that followed were not always bliss.
We married in '50, two spoiled brats,
Needless to say had our share of spats,
We chose to seek guidance from 'Above'
Therefore, developed a deep seated love.
We grew up together over the years.
In '84 parted: I shed my tears.

The wonderful things that I learned from you
Makes the love in my heart forever true.
Your life's sun has set beyond the hill
But we go 'hand in hand' together still.

Sadly missed and ever remembered,

Evelyn
